

A BRIGHT WEEK IN CITY SOCIETY

Many Pleasure Giving Entertainments Are to be Had.

EVENING OF SONG AND STORY

Alumnae Association of Woman's College Will Entertain Youthful Musicians.

Easter Lilies.
Long, white processions in the guise of hooded sisters, prophet-wise, Fair nuns ordained to silence, they have come to celebrate this day.

They seek the vast cathedrals all, And grace the proudest palace hall; And you shall find them, here and there, Beside their chapel-shrines in prayer.

But 'tis a greater joy to know Where'er their congregations go,

Some abess of them, sweet of bloom, Keeps vigil in a lowly room.

Spring Magic.
There is a Spring Beauty that outdances All beauty where'er mortal eyes are bent—

A veiled Loveliness, that gives unrest, When, fleetly, into our sphere it bends, And down these skies a gleam Elysian sends.

Watch! For that all-sustaining Fair-est—Best, Is now the Young Year's transitory guest.

And there's something of its glory lends, 'Tis the flickering dews of April's prime—

'Mid blossom winds—through shimmering forest green, That for a brief, a trembling moment's time

We glimpse this Beauty—scarcely-to-be-seen; Ay, with another pulse-beat, it will climb By viewless pathway to its own desme.

April's Smiling Face.
April has come in with smiles on her face. Perhaps the tears may chase the smiles a little later, but, at present, the smiles are pretty things to see. To-day is mid-Lent, and to-morrow will witness the Mid-Careme, or the mid-Lent festival, in full swing at Nice and at other localities in southern Europe, where the custom is kept up and the floral processions greet the eye in their varied and vivid colors, and please the senses by their delicious fragrance.

A week beginning so pleasantly will be rendered doubly so at the Woman's Club to-morrow afternoon, when Mrs. John C. Robertson will be the agreeable chairman of an artistic programme, and Miss Harriette Lee Talbot, the director of classes at the Richmond Art Club, will give an informal talk on "Student Life in Munich." The meeting for to-morrow afternoon, and all subsequent club meetings from that time until further notice, will be held at 5 o'clock.

Special Meeting This Afternoon.
A special meeting for Virginia Passenger and Power Company men, their families and friends, will be held in Reservoir Hall, under the auspices of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company Y. M. C. A. auxiliary, this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock.

The programme will include a vocal selection by Mrs. A. B. Guilgon, recitations by Georgia Evans and a brief address by Mr. L. A. Coulter on "A Great Victory."

Masonic Home Auxiliary.
The regular monthly meeting of the Masonic Home Auxiliary will be held in the Temple on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Every member is urged to attend. Ruth and Arlene Chapters of the Eastern Star are invited to meet with the auxiliary.

Silver Tea.
A silver tea, under the auspices of the Parkhouse Society of the Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church will be given at No. 1010 East Marshall Street, next Tuesday evening, from 8 to 11 o'clock.

The ladies have been fortunate in securing some of the finest local talent and an attractive musical and literary programme gives assurance of a pleasant evening. All members and friends of the church are invited.

Piano Recital.
Miss Smoot's studio, No. 110 North Third Street, was the scene of a delightful piano recital given March 31st, by Miss Elizabeth Winn and Miss Ida Louise Smoot.

The young ladies acquitted themselves with much distinction, playing their numbers

Katherine Mitchell as her sisters. The groom's family will be present in the persons of Miss Margaret Parish, as his mother; Master Frank Oley, as his father, and Master Joe Pavy, as his brother.

Among the wedding guests will be: Stuart Jackson, Lawrence Hardisty, Willoughby Points, Christian Vest, Ruby Oberly, Vera Points, Alice Davis, Stuart Jones, Cartier Parish, Marian Bristow, Alice Butler, Ella Kay, Bessie Johns, Joe Pavy, Kilton Vest, Wayne Goode, Dexter Parish, Bessie Jones, Lillian Joyner, Wortley Dickerson, Lydia Davis, Margaret Anderson and Francis Anderson.

Syle-Einstein.
A Cleveland, Ohio, paper, in its society column, contains the following account of the wedding of a well-known young Richmonder. The account says: One of the most beautiful of the spring weddings was celebrated March 29 at the Excelsior Club, when Miss Stella Ruth Einstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Felix H. Einstein, of No. 1033 Case Avenue, and Mr. Sydney E. Syle, of Richmond, Va., were united in marriage by Rabbi Moses J. Gries, at 6:30 o'clock, in the presence of several hundred guests.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white mull and point lace. She wore a veil fastened with orange blossoms and the gift of the groom, a diamond bow-knot. She carried a bouquet of lilacs of the valley.

The maid of honor's gown was white net and lace over silk and chiffon. She carried pink roses.

The flower girl wore a white Swiss frock over blue silk. She carried a basket of sweet peas.

The ceremony was performed in the ballroom of the club, which was converted into a drawing-room of rare beauty with oriental hangings and rugs. An altar of white was arranged at one end of the room with tall standards of Easter lilies and candles on either side.

The bride and groom stood under a horseshoe of cherry and peach blossoms intertwined with tiny electric lights. Above this, extending across the room, were garlands of the blossoms, and back of the altar was a bank of palms and ferns, behind which the orchestra was stationed. The chandeliers were showered with

MUSIC

There is no entertainment that takes the place of music. From age to age it has been the means of controlling sentiment of the multitude. Play the Marseillaise to a Frenchman. It will stir his blood. Dixie will bring frenzied cheers from a crowd of Southerners, and so is music a potent force in the world. Note the effect of the sweet soothing strains of the music as you glide through the water, the very essence of La Grande passion.

THE XXTH CENTURY SEWING MACHINE

The highest type of FAMILY SEWING MACHINE—the embodiment of SIMPLICITY and UTILITY—the ACME of CONVENIENCE.

Time Tells the Story

There is a big difference between a first-class sewing-machine, embodying the best of materials and workmanship, and one which is made in the cheapest manner. The buyer of the cheaper machine soon pays the difference of price in the constant cost for repairs, to say nothing of its annoying inefficiency.

SINGER SEWING-MACHINES DO GOOD WORK DURING A LIFETIME.

spring blossoms, and the windows and doorways were decorated with amilax and spring flowers.

The wedding supper was served in the United States Hotel in the form of the letter "S," was unusually beautiful. A large canoe filled with pink roses and maidenhair ferns was used as a centerpiece. Concealed in the folds of pink spring flowers were tiny electric light bulbs suspended from the ceiling on broad pink satin ribbons were pink electric lights with garlands of foliage and flowers. The mantel was backed with pink roses, and ferns. American Beauties and palms decorated the parlors and hall.

Guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Hartzell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hartzell, Mr. Ray Hartzell, Mr. I. Well and Miss Well, of Youngstown; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Klopfer, Miss Ethel Hamberger, Mr. S. Hamberger, and Mr. I. Syde, of Philadelphia; Miss Violet Kitcher, of Danville, Va., and Miss Bessie Livingston, of Washington, D. C. Mr. and Mrs. Syde left for an extended eastern and southern trip, and will be at home after April 20 at No. 201 West Grace Street, Richmond, Va.

To Leave This Week.

Mrs. M. C. Patterson will leave April 7th for Washington, where she will be joined by Miss Harriette Lee Talbot and Miss Bessie Catlin. The party will visit the Washington galleries and art exhibit under the pleasant escort of Mr. James H. Moser, art critic of the Washington Post, and director of classes in the Washington Art School. Mr. Moser has given several delightful talks on art to members of the Richmond Art Club and their friends. His water color landscapes, showing Virginia scenes, have been greatly admired during the exhibits of the club, at which they have appeared.

Mrs. Patterson has received a letter from the noted marine painter, A. W. Buhler, of Boston, who will send to the exhibit his prize picture, "On the Grand Banks," and another painting showing a group of fishermen mending their nets. Mrs. B. M. Scott, famed for her delicacy of touch in painting flowers, is just returning to New York from spending a winter in California.

Mrs. Patterson and friends will go from Washington to the Philadelphia exhibition. Later Mrs. Scott and Miss Althea Platt, whose "White Roses" done in water color, won her ready recognition in Richmond last year, have extended cordial invitations for the party to visit their studios in New York. Delightful letters have also been received by the exhibition committee from Walter Douglas, animal painter and landscapist, from Anne Fisher, water colorist and from John Alexander, whose ability in art is rapidly making him famous, and whose pictures are all the vogue in New York.

Of Interest in Richmond.

The Baltimore Sun of yesterday says: Mr. and Mrs. Littleton Dennis Teackle Quinby, of New York, announce the engagement of their sister, Miss Henrietta Quinby, to Mr. Claiborne Hale, of Baltimore.

The wedding will take place in Bedford City, Va., on June 8. Mr. Hale is a cousin of Mr. J. Herbert Claiborne, of New York city, and is prominent in the social and business world of Baltimore.

Miss Quinby is a maid of old and distinguished Virginia, family which is closely associated with the history of Virginia. A party of New Yorkers will go to Bedford City for the wedding.

Engagement of Virginian.

Mrs. John H. Ramsey, of Bath, Maine, has announced the engagement of her daughter, Jessa Allen, to Mr. Clifford Lee, formerly of Ashland, Va. Mr. Lee now has a fine position as a draughtsman in the United States Navy. He is being warmly congratulated by his many Virginia friends.

To Arrive This Week.

The members of the Jamestown committee from the national organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet in Richmond next Friday, April 7th. Mrs. B. L. Purcell, of the Commonwealth Chapter, being chairman of the committee. The visiting Daughters will be entertained while here by the Colonial Dames.

Saturday, April 8th, through the courtesy of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities, the visiting Daughters will be tendered an excursion on the steamer Brandon that leaves the wharf of the Old Dominion line at 8 A. M. The committee for the day will be Mrs. John B. Lightfoot, Mrs. Edward V. Valentine, Mrs. James Caskie Cabell and Mrs. George Bryan.

Evening of Song and Story.

Next Friday, April 7th, at 8:15 o'clock, an "Evening of Song and Story" will be given in the chapel of the Woman's College, under the auspices of its Alumnae Association.

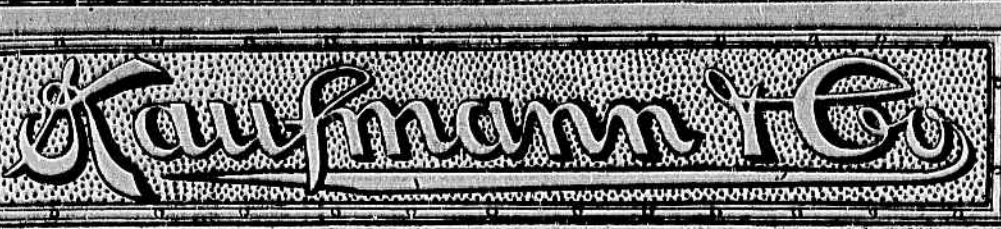

The programme will include readings from Thomas Nelson Page's stories and songs of 1860, and will be presented by Mr. J. C. Van Pelt, who for years has been associated with Castle Square Grand Opera as a tenor singer, and has received the highest praise from Mr. Page for his readings from that author.

Tickets can be secured at Shepherd's and at Polk Miller, Childrey and Company, on Broad Street, or from any member of the Alumnae Association.

Pupils Recital.

Next Friday evening at 8:30 o'clock, the pupils of the Richmond Conservatory of Music will give a recital in the Conservatory building, No. 605 East Grace Street, to which their friends and the public are cordially invited. Following is the programme:

Quartet, Audante (from Fifth Symphony, Beethoven, Misses Inez Verser,

The Polo Turban.

—the Hat without a brim—a highly favored style from Paris—as shown in illustration. These, with the Toques and Turbans in small designs are rapidly assuming the lead among the headwear contestants for feminine approval.

Small and medium Hats are the latest evolution—Plateaus twisted, turned, held in some saucy turn-up shape and worn a tilt, as a rule. The governing impulse in all the new shapes, though, is the Tricorn—adapted, modified suggested. Milan straw is a feature of the new styles. But this brief note, if multiplied, would not afford space to tell it all, so come to see them—you'll be serving your best interests by selecting your Easter Hat now while the assortments are at their best. We have—and every price between, and all the way down to the lowest point of economy.

Elegance at $10.00—Not Extravagance at $25.00

Your Easter Suit.

Assortments are at flood-tide now—styles are settled and selections may be made with full assurance of their being correct. Best for reason of choice not to postpone.

If your choice does not loom up among the few here mentioned be sure of this—our apparel floor holds that Suit or Coat you want, and as we are setting a new pace in value giving this season, you cannot, in justice to your purse, afford to buy before getting posted on our values.

$10.00—A Pretty Little Shirt-Waist Suit of two-toned taffeta, in black and all the popular shades of brown, blue, green, the waist has a prettily designed yoke formed of stitched tucks, and the full sleeve shirred at top; the skirt of nine goreds with pleat at the gores.

$15.00—Of Brown Taffeta, an effective shirred model; the waist being profusely shirred forming a yoke front and back that extends up into the collar, the sleeves and the deep cuffs are also fashioned by shirring; likewise the skirt; the skirt is also shirred to form yoke and this uniformity of treatment imparts a very effective elaboration.

$27.50—Jaunty Jacket Suit, a box-plaited model—the jacket being laid in box plaits all around and also forming its elbow sleeves, which latter is a feature not so much desired, since the cuffs are of lingerie waist (with which this suit should be worn) are being made the medium of elaborate decoration. The skirt has panel front and lower half is laid in box plaits to harmonize with waist—this model comes in black and black and red shirt suit.

$35.00—A Redingote Suit, of finest quality chiffon taffeta, in black, brown and verde, green—the rolling collar of the coat is faced with blue silk linen, showing hand embroidery in the Persian design; the skirt is a graceful affair, plaited front and back; jacket is taffeta lined.
